- We provide 90 days of selling space in our store for your consignable items. The term is often longer (up to 6 months) for non-seasonal items such as books, movies, toys and everyday clothing - provided we have the space. Seasonal clothing items may have less than 90 days display time if brought in near end-of season.
- We price all inventory based on condition, brand, style, size and demand. If you wish a minimum payout on a specific item, it must be in writing at the time of drop off.
- You will receive 50% of the final selling price. You can use your account credit in-store or request a cash payout at any time. We do not make payouts on items sold within the past 7 days due to our 7-day return policy. All inventory is tagged, logged to your account and sales tracked on our customized software program Consign Pro.
- We have customer appreciation days 4 times a year where our new and consigned items are on 'sale'. This is our way of saying "Thank You" to the shoppers who buy consigned items year-round as well as, clearing out over-stocked or out-of-season items. We also have semi-annual end-of-season sales: February is end-of-season fall/winter and August is end-of-season spring/summer. End-of-season items are offered at 50% off.
- Items deemed not sellable will be donated immediately, unless you specify at the time of each drop off that you will be back within 5 days to pick up your returns. Due to lack of storage space items remaining unclaimed after 5 days will be donated. It is the consigner's responsibility to read Our Consignment Standards, which is provided to each new consigner with a copy of this contract. _____ Initials
- Unsold items (if any) at the end of the term, will be donated to one of the charities we support on a regular basis: Best Babies, The Mustard Seed and J.A.M. International. From time to time we redirect donations to other causes (ie. Hurricane efforts, CASA, Big Brothers, etc). You are welcome to come in prior to the end of the term/end-of-season to collect your unsold items. We do not provide reminder calls. We never donate 'significant' items such as large toys and baby equipment prior to calling you to let you know they are available for immediate pickup. _____ Initials
- Accounts dormant for 24 months (ie. No account activity) are discontinued and any remaining account credit is forfeited. Should you move, please provide us with your mailing address and we will add you to our quarterly cheque roster.

We reserve the right to not accept any consignments for reasons not previously mentioned.

I have read and agree to the terms and conditions outlined above.
